8:6 If the referees find an action to be particularly reckless, particularly dangerous, premeditated or malicious, they must submit a written report after the game, so that the responsible authorities are in a position to take a decision about further measures.

Indications and characteristics that could serve as decision-making criteria in addition to those in Rule 8:5 are:

- a) a particularly reckless or particularly dangerous action;
- b) a premeditated or malicious action, which is not in any way related to the game situation.

Comment:

When a foul under Rule 8:5 or 8:6 is committed during the last minute of a game, with the purpose of preventing a goal, then the action is to be seen as ‘extremely unsportsmanlike conduct’ under Rule 8:10d and punished accordingly.

- c) If during the last minute of a game the ball is out of play, and a player or team official prevents or delays the execution of a throw for the opponents, in order to prevent them from being able to take a shot on goal or to obtain a clear scoring chance; this is considered extremely unsportsmanlike, and it applies to any type of interference (e.g., with only limited physical action, intercepting a pass, interference with the reception of the ball, not releasing the ball);

- d) if during the last minute of a game the ball is in play, and the opponents, through an action falling under Rule 8:5 or 8:6, prevent the team in possession from being able to take a shot on goal or to obtain a clear scoring chance; this is not just to be punished with a disqualification under 8:5 or 8:6,; a written report must also be submitted.

14:1 A 7-meter throw is awarded when:

- a) a clear chance of scoring is illegally destroyed anywhere on the court by a player or a team official of the opposing team;
- b) there is an unwarranted whistle signal at the time of a clear chance of scoring;
- c) a clear chance of scoring is destroyed through the interference of someone not participating in the game, for instance a spectator entering the court or stopping the players through a whistle signal (except when 9:1

Comment applies).

By analogy, this rule also applies in the case of a ‘force majeure’, such as a sudden electrical failure, that stops the game precisely during a clear chance of scoring. See Clarification No. 6 for the definition of clear chance of scoring.

IHF Publication 2012

Last minute (Rules 8:10c, 8:10d)

‘Last ~~minute of the game~~’ occurs during regular playing time (end of 2nd half) as well as at the end of the second half during both overtime periods.

Not respecting the distance (Rule 8:10c)

“Not respecting the distance” only leads to a disqualification (~~to be reported in writing~~) if a throw during ~~the last minute~~ of the game (!) cannot be executed

Comment applies);

d) there is an infraction according to Rules 8:10c or 8:10d (however, see 8:10 last paragraph).

By analogy, this rule also applies in the case of a ‘force majeure’, such as a sudden electrical failure, that stops the game precisely during a clear chance of scoring. See Clarification No. 6 for the definition of clear chance of scoring.

Guidelines and Interpretations

Last 30 seconds (Rules 8:10c, 8:10d)

The ~~last 30 seconds of the game~~ occur during regular playing time (end of 2nd half) as well as at the end of the ~~second~~ half during both overtime periods. ~~The start of the last 30 seconds of the game begins when the clock indicates 59 minutes 30 seconds (or 69:30, 79:30) or 0 minutes 30 seconds.~~

Not respecting the distance (Rule 8:10c)

“Not respecting the distance” only leads to a disqualification ~~+ 7m throw~~, if a throw ~~during the last 30 seconds~~ of the game (!) cannot be executed.

The Rule is applicable if the infraction is committed during the last 30 seconds of the game or at the same time as the final signal (see Rule 2:4, 1st paragraph). In this case, the referees will make a decision on the basis of their observations of facts (Rule 17:11).

Disqualification ~~during the last minute of the game~~ (Rule 8:10d)

In cases of a disqualification according to Rule 8:5 ~~during the last minute of the game~~, only infractions according to Rule 8:6, Comment (infraction with the purpose to prevent a goal) lead to a disqualification to be reported in writing (according to 8:10c).

If the game is interrupted during the last 30 seconds due to an interference that is not directly related to the preparation or the execution of a throw (for example faulty substitution, unsportsmanlike conduct in the substitution area), Rule 8:10c is to be applied.

Disqualification during the last 30 seconds (Rule 8:10d)

In case of a disqualification of a defending player according to Rules 8:5 and 8:6 during the last 30 seconds of the game, only infractions according to Rule 8:6 Comment lead to a disqualification to be reported in writing + 7m throw. Infractions of a defending player according to Rule 8:5 during the last 30 seconds of the game lead to a disqualification not to be reported in writing + 7m throw.

Gaining an advantage during the last 30 seconds (8:10d, last paragraph)

The referees interrupt the game and award a 7m at the latest when the player receiving a pass does not score a goal or continues the game by making another pass.

Rule 8:10d is applicable if the infraction is committed during the playing time or at the same time as the final signal (see Rule 2:4, 1st paragraph). In this case, the referees will make a decision on the basis of their observations of facts (Rule 17:11).
